

1 That God's eternal purpose would be realized in a people with His wisdom and life.

2 That a vessel from the nations would arise, coming out fully to His eternal goal and high heavenly calling.

3 That God's full thought, the mind of Christ, would be inwardly wrought in a new order priesthood.

4 The Lamb would receive and be joined to the humanity of His kind, she who has become one with His heart.

5 That His people would embrace the purpose to become an exact representation of Christ both now and eternally.

6 That His royal, priestly possession would indeed show forth His excellencies in this earth and in the heavens.

7 That His great eternal wisdom, God's plan, would no longer be a mystery, but an unveiled high calling among His body.

That we would allow ourselves to be made ready, through Him, and would make ourselves ready as well. 8

That the Holy Spirit would be newly embraced for the true purpose to which He has been given. The child trainer for the people of God! 9

That Christ would be- 10
come all and all to us, that the priority of first love unto Jesus would be a reality.

That the govern- 11
ment of Christ would be truly embraced both within the church, every member, and among the church.

That we would be seated with Him on heavenly ground, with heavenly purpose, offering heavenly sacrifices, displaying heavenly life in increasing fullness and continuously pressing forward to our heavenly calling. 12
